GRADE NOTES

Marie Houtchell has left the first grade and moved with her parents to Detroit.

Herbert Goulding is back at school after nursing a broken arm for several weeks.

Donna Griffith is the new pupil in the kindergarten.

The first grade has lost one of its pupils, Dorothy Davis having moved away.

Laura Monroe entered the 7th grade this week.

Cecile Goheen has left the 8th grade, her people having moved to the country.

Seventh and eighth grades are working on their Halloween posters.

Miss Pettit, Miss Pickett and Mrs. St. Clair were hostesses at a cabaret party given to the teachers and young ladies of Yale in the kindergarten room on Monday evening. Besides spending an enjoyable evening the teachers and young ladies organized a club which will hold meetings every two weeks. Miss Jessie McCall was elected president and Miss Elda Adams secretary and treasurer.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Don't fail to be present at the first home football game to be played with Vassar on Friday, Oct. 20. Come out and encourage the boys. Help them to win. You can't do less.

The Freshmen gave a return party to the Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors on Tuesday, October 10.

Misses Buck and McCall spent the week end in Detroit. They heard Billy Sunday on Saturday and reported a fine sermon.

The Physics class are studying Newton's Laws of Gravitation and will soon be buried deep in the mysteries of machinery.

Mildred Williams is absent from school because of sickness. We are in hopes she will be back soon.

The High School pupils greatly appreciate the Thursday morning talks by Mr. Drouyor in the High School Assembly room. The talk last Thursday morning was especially well received, and surely each one who heard it resolved to make his life a useful one rather than a derelict.

One of the great keystones of success is power of rapid adjustment to new conditions. Take things as they come and get down to business right away.

Miss Buck's program, which was postponed last Friday afternoon because of the absence of the foot-ball boys, will be given this Friday afternoon.

The Physics class does not appreciate the odor in the chemistry room.

Never do anything by halves. Even when you kick put your whole sole into it.

Please return the report cards.

Be on hand at the foot ball game on Friday, Oct. 20.

The names of Calvin Brown and Mary Wilt should be added to the list of those neither absent nor tardy during the month of September.

FOOT BALL DOPE

Yale High lost by a narrow margin to the Giants of Croswell last Friday in as fine a game of rugby as was ever staged on the latter's gridiron.

Outweighing the Yale boys by 300 pounds, Croswell was unable to score the first half owing to the gait and speed of the visitors and the first 22 minutes of play closed with honors even.

In the third quarter, with ties substituted and other changes on the line, the pluckiness was forced over for three touchdowns, two of which were supplanted by place kicks.

The last quarter was a replica of the first half and, although Yale placed ball within a yard of her opponents goal it fell at the fourth down and neither team scored. Finals were 20 to 0.

The Croswell eleven is a clean, square aggregation of eligibles and deserves their victory.

MEMORIES

By Raymond Wilks

When I entered the old cabin with my uncle, where he had lived with his small family from his marriage until two years ago, a queer smile played upon his care-worn face.

"You see, child," he said, "this seems like home. No," looking at the almost bare walls, "it doesn't either, because Etta and Howard are not here to meet us."

After his wife's and little son's death

death my uncle had come to live with us, and as we were taking a tramp in the woods for a day or so, we thought the old cabin a good place to spend the night.

When supper was over; when we had gathered wood to last for the night and the fire on the hearth was sending a ruddy glow through the cabin, uncle began to tell of the times spent in the cabin when all were there.

"You see, things were different then, lad! The walls didn't look so bare as they do tonight. Do you see where that bit of plaster is off? Well, a picture used to hang there, and it makes me feel lonesome without it, for Howard used to look at it by the hour. Oh! you see that old cupboard, do you? Yes, that stood opposite that little picture all the while we lived here. And that little bench! I made it and Etta covered it, and Howard thought it was so pretty. It has never been moved."

I tried to get him to talk about something more pleasant, so I said, "And I suppose you found lots of big game up here, uncle?"

"Yes," he said, "I had the pleasure of carrying a small deer home on my back one day. I shot him three miles west of here. And such a greeting as I received! But now everything is so still! We hung a piece of meat on that very nail, lad. But, dear me, we must go to bed now. Come, lad."

As I slowly followed my uncle, I turned to gaze at the old room, wondering if it, too, missed the cheerful presence of the little boy and mother, and cherished the fond memories my uncle did.

OBITUARY.

He still prepared for death and death or life shall thereby be the sweeter.—Shakespeare.

John Lavell, aged 76 years, died at his farm home east of Yale, on Saturday, October 7th, 1916, after an illness of nearly two years.

The funeral was held Monday morning at 10:30 o'clock from Sacred Heart church and the burial took place in the Catholic cemetery. Fr. James Melling officiating at High mass. A large number of friends and neighbors attended the funeral and paid their last respects to a worthy and honorable citizen.

Deceased was born near Bellefonte, Ont., in 1840, and in 1861 married Miss Bridget Brown. Six years later they moved to Michigan and settled on a farm in St. Clair county, afterwards buying the farm and building a home where he has lived for the past 41 years. His wife and helpmate for over 50 years departed this life two years ago. Seven children were born to them: Charles, who died in 1879; Mary at home; James of Fremont; Peter on old homestead in Greenwood; Rose, who died in 1908; John of Greenwood; Ellen Montgomery of Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Lavell, both now deceased, were sturdy, honest and lovable pioneers who lived a life of helping one another doing unto others as you would wish to be done by, and by following this rule they enjoyed the friendship and respect of a large circle of warm friends and neighbors.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire through the columns of the Expressor to thank all those friends and neighbors who assisted us during the last illness and after the death of our beloved father, also for the beautiful flowers furnished, and all who in anywise did what they could to comfort us in our bereavement.

The Children.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Farrer, of Beloit, Kansas, who have been visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Frank Clark, and friends, was taken suddenly ill with cholera infantum and pneumonia, and died on Friday, Oct. 6th, 1916, at the age of 21 months. All was done to save the little one, but the angel of death claimed her.

The family departed for their home with the remains Sunday morning.

The deepest sympathy is extended to the bereaved parents by all who knew and met them.

M. P. Church Notes

REV. F. L. CRANDALL, Pastor.

Our rally was a decided success, 123 being present, and the school will go forth with renewed interest. We regret the illness that prevents some of our faithful ones from attending church and Sunday school.

At this writing we cannot announce the subjects for next Sunday's services, but you who have heard the splendid addresses which our pastor is giving us, will know there is something good in store for you.

A large number from this church autoed to Port Huron last Monday to hear Billy Sunday, and all agree the time was well spent. His theme should interest every man and woman in this state of ours. We believe your vote this coming Nov. 7 will mean more to you and yours than any vote you ever cast in your life. We pray you may vote for God and right. Just ask yourself, "What would Jesus do?"

The meeting held at our church on Wednesday evening in behalf of state-wide prohibition, was well attended.

The L. A. S. met at the home of Mrs. Wm. Kennedy this week Wednesday afternoon. Twenty-five ladies were present and a nice amount of work done. Two new members were welcomed to the society. Next aid will meet with Mrs. Ostrander.

Your presence is requested in the church parlors every Thursday evening.

PREPARE THE CHILDREN FOR LATER YEARS

THERE is no more serious question for you to decide, Mr. and Mrs. Parent, than the kind of training your children are to have. In many homes education and training depend upon how much the parents can afford to spend.

What about Your Boy and Girl?

Will Willie have to forego his dreams of being a civil engineer, or will Mary be deprived of the musical training she has been looking forward to? Will they be compelled after school years are passed to take their places with the underpaid men and women, untrained, without a vocation?

Plan now, when they are young. Bank your money—or better still, deposit a little to their credit in this bank regularly, and when the time comes there will be no necessary "skimping" to start them off right.
